TEXTING AGREEMENT

In order to safeguard your personal information, Dr. Robison utilizes OhMD for text messaging. Although Dr. Robison does not provide text therapy, text messaging is a way to communicate regarding appointments, and other logistical information. OhMD is an app you can download for free from your smart phone. Please check one of the boxes below to indicate your preference when it comes to texting:

I will download OhMD so I have a secure way to send and receive text messages with Dr. Michele Robison.

I prefer to utilize the standard messaging system on my smart phone. I understand that although Dr. Robison and I will take responsible measures to keep our messages private, this is not a completely secure way to communicate and I do not hold Dr. Michele Robison liable should any confidential information be breached.

I will not utilize texting as a way to communicate with Dr. Robison.
